

Our angels will come tonight

Should now really sleeping
All I think is you
Outside a storm is sweeping
And my love is true
I am dreaming of you
Like from the sweetest flowers
You are my dream come true
Look in your eyes for hours

I will be here
When you come
This is our night
We hold on tight
I know, this will be wonderful
Our angels will come, tonight

I wake up in the morning light
You are sleeping in my bed
I kiss you gently, hold you tight
But starting to get sad
'Cause I have to work today
And I know, I will come home late
But baby, please just stay
And I hope you will wait
I will be here
When you come
This is our night
We hold on tight
I know, this will be wonderful
Our angels will come, tonight

I know, this will be wonderful
Our angels will come... tonight.
