

The first day of the year

Written by Wolfgang Steinwiddler in 2017

Everybody here around
Is dancing to that groovy sound
I can tell you
We are having a good time!

It is the last day of the year
We can see the church from here
The clock right there
Shows now point twelve.

Chorus:

Now it's here
The first day of the year
I can feel a door now closing
And the last year is just passing by
In front of my eye.
Cheers!
To you and all our friends
Here and there, and everywhere
When I close my eyes
I can see you, though
What a show!

The fireworks are great tonight
We`re dancing `til the morning light
Ahead of us is really a good time
So many things I want to do
So many wishes should come true
I was praying to god
I was praying for delight.

Chorus:

Now it`s here
The first day of the year
I can feel a door now closing
And the last year is just passing by
In front of my eye.
Cheers!
To you and all our friends
Here and there, and everywhere
When I close my eyes
I can see you, though
What a show!